SENATE RESOLUTION

MADAM PRESIDENT:

I offer the following resolution and move its adoption:

A SENATE RESOLUTION recognizing the hard work of the students of Marion High School who participated in the Young Entrepreneur's Program.

Whereas, In an effort to promote business and life skills which will provide students with a competitive advantage in the next phase of their academic futures, fifteen of Marion High School's students have put hours of hard work into producing an effective business plan for a competition hosted by the Young Entrepreneur's Program (YEP);

Whereas, YEP is dedicated to nurturing new generations of entrepreneurs. In furtherance of this goal, YEP put on a competition at Indiana Wesleyan University where students presented their final business plans as budding young entrepreneurs;

Whereas, The students attended hour-long sessions twice a week after school, to learn from Grant County professionals and to work together on their projects under the guidance of volunteer mentors from the Indiana Wesleyan University Students in Free Enterprise team;

2012

RR 3530/DI cj+

Whereas, The participants from Marion High School utilized their creativity and innovative thinking skills to create a comprehensive business proposal. This opportunity provides these students with a competitive advantage among their peers in future academic endeavors;

Whereas, The team that placed first place presented a business plan for the "12+ 1 Bakery" on December 12, 2011. The team members included Corey Deaton, Miranda Fuchs, and Megan Swan;

Whereas, Kirby Kohlmorgan, Chynna Fry, and Chari Redwine, the authors of the "Flair" business plan, were awarded second place;

Whereas, Tyler Humbles, Mariah Powell, Audrey Walt, Meredith Kuczora, Jessica Snyder, Emon Jones, Jaimee Maddox, Aaron Messer, and Taleeza Foudray are to be congratulated for all of their hard work on their projects; and

Whereas, In choosing to participate in the Young Entrepreneurs' Program, these students have demonstrated ambition and maturity that is to be recognized and complimented. These high school students dedicate their time and hard work to sharpening their academic skills and honing their aptitude for business management and entrepreneurship: Therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

1 SECTION 1. That the Indiana Senate congratulates the student
2 participants in the Young Entrepreneurs Program on their commitment
3 to excellence.

4 SECTION 2. The Secretary of the Senate is hereby directed to
5 transmit a copy of this Resolution to the Marion High School students
6 who competed in the Young Entrepreneurs Program.
